

AUSTRIAN PROVINCES AFLAME WITH HATRED ENGAGE IN RIOTING

Sarajevo, Bosnia, June 30.—All Bosnia and Herzegovina are today aflame with hatred, kindled by the assassination of Arch Duke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Austrian throne, and his consort, the Duchess of Hohenberg, by a young Slav in this city on Sunday.

In spite of the declaration of martial law, there was fierce rioting in this and other cities throughout the provinces.

At Mostar, the chief city of Herzegovina two hundred Servians were killed and wounded in a night with Moslems.

The city is reported to have been set on fire for the rioting Servians and Moslems.

A mad crowd attacked and wrecked the homes of three Servians, in which bombs had been found. The military police fired upon the mob, but the infuriated men and women turned upon the gendarmes and drove them off, then continued the attacks upon the buildings. Three Servians were caught and would have been lynched in the streets but for the soldiers, who upon being reinforced, succeeded to the scene and with fixed bayonets charged the rioters.

Servians' shops and homes were ransacked and the windows smashed. At Meschinga crowds of Mohammedians, Croatians and Servians engaged in a fight which wrecked part of the city.

A Servian was shot and killed in this city and while his body lay in the streets it was stoned.

All the bitterness of racial hatred has been loosened and in many quarters a state of anarchy prevails. The government is proceeding with caution, fearing that a false step may precipitate a wide-spread uprising.

Nedeljko Cabrinovich, who made the first attempt upon the lives of Arch Duke Francis Ferdinand and his consort on Sunday, by throwing a bomb, was questioned by the magistrate in the court of first instance today.

The prisoner was mullen and defiant. He admitted that the plot against the Austrian heir had been hatched in Belgrade, but he refused to give the names of those who fomented the conspiracy. His ignorance, however, indicated that someone high in authority in the Serbian capital had given the order for the death of the Arch Duke.

Carlo Prizmitz, the actual assassin, being closely guarded to prevent his committing suicide, as he declared that death will be his portion.

The police hope to extract valuable information from him and for the second time he spent most of the night under the merciless grill of the authorities.

Military Party Wants War At Servia

Vienna, June 30.—Tense feeling prevails here over the assassination of Arch Duke Francis Ferdinand and his wife by a Slav in Sarajevo and radical members of the military party are calling for a punitive war against Servia.

Despite the fact that the Serbian court has gone into mourning and that the Austrian government has been officially notified from Belgrade that dire punishment will be inflicted upon any person implicated in the plot the anti-Servian hostility grew in force today.

The domestic political situation threatened to become acute if certain powerful leaders adhere to their determination to put forward little Prince Maximilian, the 11-year-old son of the slain Arch Duke as heir to the throne.

The natural heir is Chas. Francis Ferdinand but Francis Josef has weathered many a political storm and his supporters believe that he will be able to overcome any opposition to his plan in this instance.

A dispatch from Sarajevo stated that the bodies of the slain Arch Duke and his wife will be shipped to Trieste.

The corpses will be taken on board a special funeral train and brought to this city.

From eight o'clock Friday morning until noon on that day the bodies will lie in state in the chapel of the Hapsburgs.

Tumult In Croatian Diet

Agria, Croatia, June 30.—Denunciation by National Croats of a Catholic and Servian coalition in connection with the assassination of Arch Duke Ferdinand and his consort led to a scene of violent tumult in the Croatian Diet today and the disturbance became so great that the speaker suspended the session.

Vitrolite threats filled the chamber. The Servian deputies were taunted with being murderers and were asked if they had brought their bombs with them.

Arch Duke Had Insurance

Vienna, Austria, June 30.—The Times today says the late Arch Duke's life was insured with Hotel companies for $12,000,000, and that his wife for $6,000,000.

BIG CHERRY CROP BUT NO APPLES

Columbus, O., June 30.—The Ohio cherry crop will average 75 per cent more than last year. State Orchardist Shaw estimated today that this was the heaviest crop in years.

The apple crop will be just the opposite. Ohio will not produce half the apples it did last year. There will be no early apples.

MINE MEET

Columbus, O., June 30.—A proposition that the miners wage scale be based upon the percentage of fine coal in the various seal districts was made by Ed. Jones, coal operator of Jackson, when the miners and operators resumed today. The proposition caused a sharp division among the operators. The joint conference was adjourned while the operators conferred. There is little hope now for the entire state, even for all the districts outside of the eastern Ohio field, getting together.

New York, June 30.—Colonel Roosevelt and his son, Theodore, Jr., and his secretary left at 8:05 this morning for Pittsburgh to open the second annual conference of the Progressive party.

Colonel Roosevelt appeared to be in excellent health, but appeared in doubt as to the condition of his voice. His speech at Pittsburgh tonight he said would serve as a test for his voice and determine to some extent his future engagements.

Apparatus from Elgin was sent to confine the flames to the burning district. The heaviest loss is C. H. Hall Co., owners of the largest department store in Rock River valley.

18 RAILROAD MAGNATES HAVE BEEN INDICTED, MELLEN HEADS LIST

Cambridge, Mass., June 30.—Eighteen persons, including Chas. S. Mellen, former president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford, and Boston & Maine railroad company, and Frederick Moseley, of Moseley & Company, of Boston, brokers, Ralph Gillette, of Westfield, and the investment committee of two savings banks of this city were indicted late yesterday by the Middlesex county grand jury on various charges in connection with the financing of the Hampden railroad from Bangorville to Springfield. Mr. Gillette was president of the railroad corporation.

The railroad was built a year ago as a hope to connect the central Massachusetts division of the Boston & Maine with the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, but has never been operated, an attempt to obtain the legislature's consent to its lease to the Boston & Maine having been defeated. The indictments against Messrs. Mellen, Moseley and Gillette alleged conspiracy to induce the investment committees of the two banks to lend a total of $45,000 to the corporation. The notes securing the loan were endorsed by the Hampden Investment Company, organized by Mr. Gillette to finance the building of the railroad which lost approximately $4,000,000.

The investment committee of the Eastern Cambridge Savings Bank is indicted on three counts of conspiracy.

Similar indictments were returned against the investment committee of the Cambridge Savings Bank.

Frederick P. Moseley was indicted also on six counts involving the alleged larceny of sums amounting to $112,500 from the banks and Mr. Mellen was indicted as an accessory before the fact on five of these counts.

London, Eng., June 30.—After a brief lull in their activities the militant "Anarchists" again aroused London today. A series of mysterious fires in the south of London which did damage estimated at more than $1,000,000 was attributed to the suffrage arson squad.

Several business houses were burned and two tenement houses. Fifteen families were homeless. According to Scotland Yards unmistakable evidence of incendiaryism was found.

While the flames were burning their way through South London two women gained entrance to the official residence of Premier Asquith in Downing street. When it was learned that they were suffragettes the servant tried to eject them and violent scenes ensued. During the fight one of the women pulled a lock and chain from her dress and attempted to lock herself to the door but failed. The police were summoned and the suffragettes were hurried to jail, meanwhile screaming that they were not yet through with the prime minister.

GOVERNOR COMMUTES SENTENCE

Columbus, O., June 30.—Governor Cox, following recommendations of the state board of pardons, today commuted the four years sentence of Silas K. Eldridge, former Portage county sheriff, to one and one-half years. Eldridge must promise total abstinence. Cox stipulates. He over-drew his accounts on April 13, 1913. An extravagant family, Cox was told, was the cause.

225 MISSING AT SALEM

Salem, Mass., June 30.—Not less than 225 persons were reported still missing today following the great fire last week.

Today a search was begun in the coal mine for the bodies of the dead. The authorities fear that the death list will prove to be larger, despite the low figure at first given out.

It is believed, however, that many of the dead will never be found, their bodies having been consumed by the flames.

DANCED HEAD BACK ON

New York, June 30.—Miss Emily Shupp dancer, has reversed her head. Instead of dancing a man's head off his shoulders she had danced it figuratively speaking back on. Frank Rodony was an exile from Russia for eight years at a price of 50,000 roubles on his head. Miss Shupp interested the grand duke in the dance. The grand duke wanted the dance and the girl exacted as a price for the dance full pardon for Rodony.

Mediators Are In The Humor To Quit; Rebel Note Arrives

By W. J. Maddox, Staff Correspondent of the International News Service.

Washington, June 30.—Claiming that their good offices were solicited by President Wilson and Secretary Bryan to mediate an international difficulty between the United States and the Huerta government in Mexico rather than squabble among the factions of the republic, the representatives of the A. B. C. countries are about to adjourn in disgust.

This is the meek of a report which is causing something of a stir in official circles today.

The apparent sudden change in the constitutional plan for a quick campaign to Mexico City has created interest here. Just what Villa's retreat to Torreon foretells officials here are at a loss to understand. There seems to be but little doubt, however, that the move is a sequel to the reported split between Villa and Carranza.

FUTURE OF MEXICAN REVOLUTION DEPENDS ON REBEL CONFERENCE

Torreon, Mex., June 30.—The future of the Mexican revolution will depend on a conference to be held late this week by delegates appointed by General Carranza and General Villa, to try to patch up their differences.

That the break was even more serious than was supposed is the belief here today. Villa bluntly told Carranza that he was tired of the treatment received at the hands of Carranza agents and unless it was changed he would take his army from the field. Arrangements for the conference then followed.

Confidential agents today denied the report that Huerta had communicated by wire with General Carranza. They say the report is absurd. Huerta is the last person in Mexico with whom Carranza would consider an alliance.

Memorandum of Mexican Minister

Mexico City, Mex., June 30.—Roberto Esteva-Ruiz, acting foreign minister, has given out a memorandum bearing on the statement of the Mexican delegates to the Niagara Falls mediation, addressed to the American delegates and first made public from Niagara Falls, June 17.

In it he brings out certain passages not concerned in the statement issued at Niagara Falls. The object of the memorandum was to combat the proposition presented by the American delegates which were said to be tantamount to reducing electoral liberty in Mexico to a sham, as the election would be held under pressure in favor of Carranza.

This, it was argued, would be bad for Mexico and for the United States, as well as for Carranza, as it would cause bad feeling between the two peoples and Carranza would always be regarded as the nominee and a subordinate of the American people. For this reason the Mexican government rejected the proposal in question for they could not countenance any arrangement enabling the Washington government to put in a president in Mexico.

Prohibition Endorsed By Trinity Board

The official board of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church Monday night unanimously went on record as favoring state-wide prohibition in Ohio this fall.

The above action was taken as a slap against the liquor interests of Ohio for threatening to push a constitutional amendment repealing the Rose county local option law and an inhibition against prohibition by legislative enactment.

A report of the Trinity board's action was wired to Wayne B. Wheeler, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League at Columbus. Other churches of the city are expected to take similar action in answering what is construed by temperance forces as effort of the wets to "put one over" on them.

Colored Couple Arrested Again

Within a few hours after his release from the city prison Monday afternoon Charles Henderson, colored, was placed under arrest Monday night by Captain McCarty and police officers on a charge of unlawfully cohabiting with Agnes Williams, also colored. The Williams woman was also arrested, the couple being caught late Monday night in a house in the rear of Tenth street, near Gay.

Henderson had just secured his release Monday afternoon upon the payment of $25 on a fine of $50, assessed last Monday, with the additional promise that he would raise the balance of $22 Tuesday. He also promised the mayor that he would secure a marriage license to wed Miss Williams, who is employed as domestic. Officers reported Monday night that the couple were again cohabiting together, and when an inquiry from the probate judge revealed the fact that no license was issued, their arrest was ordered.

Both Henderson and the Williams woman pleaded guilty to the charges against them when arraigned before Mayor Erick Tuesday morning, and they were fined $50 each, $25 of which was suspended in each instance. Miss Williams' employer stood good for her fine, but Henderson was committed to the city prison in default of payment.

Moore On The Bench

Frank "Peggy" Moore, who was let out by the Covington, Va. club because it could not afford to carry only an active playing manager, has returned home.

"Peggy" witnessed Monday's game at Millbrook park. He has no definite plans for the future but says he is through with baseball as he has found there is no money in it.

Lyric Good Things
On Wednesday "A Celebrated Case" in four reels will prove one of the great pictures of the year. It is a story adapted from the old French play "Cyrano de Bergerac" and shows a tangle of dramatic incidents connected with the famous battle of Fontenoy, that awful struggle between the French and English. Alice Joyce is the star and she is supported by an excellent cast including Tom Moore, Guy Coombs, Alice Hollister, and Marguerite Courtot. You simply can't go wrong on this picture, it is one of Kalem company's most successful dramatic features and has made a tremendous hit everywhere.

"A Warning From The Past," showing on Friday, is a most unusual story, made by the Edison company and features the popular pair, Herbert Prior and Mabel Trunnelle. Manager Mack also announces the great Vitaphone picture, "A Million Bids" for Monday, July 6th. This massive picture is considered to be the greatest triumph of this great company. When you hear in mind that Vitaphone is all good, you can feel certain that this production will be something extraordinary.

Classy Pictures At The Columbia

The Columbia has some real classy pictures booked for this week. Beginning today with a special comedy offering entitled "Who's Who?" This is a comedy picture of the real kind and if you enjoy a good hearty laugh, you simply can't afford to miss seeing "Who's Who?" this evening. "The Other Half of the Note" which Manager Tynes announces for Thursday is a gripping three reel story of Uncle Sam's secret service and gives you a good insight as to how samplers are handled. For next Saturday you can see a real Fourth of July picture in "Francis Marion, the Swamp Fox." This picture in three reels reproduces the military life of Francis Marion, known in history as the Swamp Fox. Every incident made famous by this hero of '76 is shown in a way that will arouse the patriotism of every spectator. Marion's battles with Tarleton, the butcher, and his rescue of General Gates are among the historic events depicted. Guy Coombs and Marguerite Courtot play the principal parts. Remember, you will always see a good show at the Columbia.

Carr's Engagement
Diamond Rings

Of course you would not think of giving a Diamond as a betrothal gift which you did not know was of the right quality, setting, etc.

The name of Carr has become a synonym for fair and honest dealing. It stands for quality and all that is best in the jewelry business. If that name is on the box the contents pass without question. It adds much in prestige but nothing in price.

We will be glad to talk Diamond with you any time. Ask about our easy payment plan.

Picking Up Money

Using these columns is pretty much like picking up money on the streets. Walking is small effort, you wear out a little. The money you pick up is clear gain, if you can't find the owner.

So it is little effort to telephone your "want" to this paper. Your carrier will collect the little cost—only 25 cents a word each insertion—and the little ad is altogether likely to get for you what you want.

The work on the Harrisonville pike was practically completed Saturday. All grading has been finished for several days and Contractor William Odle is busy leveling the small hilly places. Village Engineer Sam Harper is looking after the work. Lines are being run for sidewalks and the road will be ready for paving as soon as the county sees fit to do so. There was not one rock as large as a tub in all the dirt that was removed in the cutting down of the pike. The other contractors that had bids for the work had completed on running into rack before they completed the work.
It is one of the best improvements completed since the village has been incorporated.

The new officers will be installed

Greater Buildings Are To Arise From Ashes Of New Boston Fire

It takes more than a disastrous blaze to discourage the property owners and business men, who sustained heavy losses in the New Boston fire Monday morning. With characteristic optimism they announced Tuesday that they would rebuild and re-establish themselves and in the language of the wily press agent they would do so on a "bigger and better scale."

Fenner and Warner, whose live-ry barn was wiped out, stated Tuesday that with the adjustment of their losses active work on a new and larger barn would be commenced. It is likely that it will be built of brick and concrete. They will soon erect a temporary barn in which to continue their prosperous business. The three horses of this live-ry firm, which were missing after Monday's blaze were found Monday afternoon grazing contentedly on a grassy spot some distance back of the fire zone.

Druggist Ernest Coburn has rented the Carter room, just east of his former location and as soon as his stock can be inspected he will be ready for business. George M. Wander has not announced his plans and will not until his loss is adjusted. Mr. Wander had a prosperous business and his loss is quite heavy.

George Lander is looking for a room in which to continue his butcher business. He is not discouraged by the loss he met with when his place of business was wiped out by the greedy flames.

Phil Eronert says he will rebuild his cottage at once and Fred Bolander of Sciotoville, will put up a business block on the site of the one effected in Monday's destructive blaze.

Hundreds of Portsmouth people visited the fire zone Monday and gazed upon the smoldering ruins. They willingly admitted that it was one of the most devastating fires that has taken place in Scioto county in many years.

All luck has pursued quite a number of people affected by the fire. Mrs. Ernest Coburn, whose husband's drug store was destroyed, is a patient in the Hempstead hospital. John Parker, whose step father, Lashen Wallace's home was burned down, just a few days ago had an arm broken. John Eronert, who lost his home in the blaze, had several toes of his right foot mashed a few days ago.

Telephone communication to the stricken village was opened in good shape Monday, the Home and Bell Telephone Companies having repaired the damage the fire caused to their lines.

Motion Pictures Under Canvas

James Keever and A. Walk are preparing to start on a season's tour with their motion picture tent show, expecting to play week stands in the smaller towns of this section.

The show will most likely open at Sciotoville and will make Harrisonville, South Webster, Stockdale and other places. They expect to start as soon as the new tour with their motion picture tent show, expecting to play week stands in the smaller towns of this section.

MR. & MRS. SOUTHWORTH GIVEN A BIG SERENADE

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. William Southworth, married Monday afternoon at the county courthouse, treated them to an old-fashioned belling at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Crayton S. Brooks, of Third street, Monday evening. Rice and old shoes and other articles appropriate for the occasion hampered the couple wherever they went, while the noise for a time was deafening. The happy young couple were showered with congratulations and well-wishes from all sides. Contrary to their original intention, Mr. and Mrs. Southworth did not leave Portsmouth Monday afternoon, but remained at the bride's home until Tuesday morning, when they left for Indianapolis, where the groom is scheduled to play with the Cleveland Scouts Tuesday afternoon. Parental forgiveness was forthcoming, and the disappointment felt over their sudden marriage soon gave way to congratulations and best wishes for their happiness.

LOOK OUT FOR THIEVES

Request was made of the local police department by the Ironton authorities Monday evening to be on the lookout for the unknown thieves who entered the home of George Clutter, of North Kenova, near Ironton, and ransacked his wardrobe. Two suits of clothes, three hats, shirts and collars without number, several pairs of hose, two pairs of shoes and $1 in cash were stolen. Neighbors of the Clutter family saw four well-dressed young men leave the Clutter home Monday afternoon in the absence of the family, and it is thought that they perpetrated the job.

COULD HAVE WON EASILY

Big Tom Murphy is fairly kicking himself because he did not attend the recent Eagles' convention at Springfield, for he would have carried off honors as the tallest man in the parade. An Eagle weighing 263 pounds and 6 ft. and 1 inch tall won a prize of $35. Tom stands 6 ft. 4 inches in his stocking feet and normally weighs 300 pounds, but without much exertion he can increase this figure to 375 pounds, with perfect ease.

THE MYSTERIOUS GRAVE

BY MRS. C. C. DEGMAN

CHAPTER IV.
"Everybody for miles down the river were searching for the body. Jack Pearson hired two men and a skiff and lived on the river floating down on one side, rowing back on the other. He would come to our house after dark and leave at daylight and carried food in his pocket. Early on the fourth morning after the sad affair, as he was floating down, just above Aunt's Run, he spied an object in a bunch of willows. It was the body. Coroner Smith and undertaker Rowe were sent for and soon it was in the undertaker's rooms.

Jack Pearson took control of the case, and gave orders. Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Westwood and I were asked to assist Mr. and Mrs. Rowe in preparing the body for burial. He instructed that the best material that could be procured was to be used, then hired men and went to the graveyard.

"Mrs. Westwood was a milliner and artist—she took control of the shrouding. We made a foundation of white muslin, then with white silk, lace and floss we arranged it in puffs and fold on folds, 'til the whole presented the picture of a beautiful marble white face peeping out from a mass of billowy white foam. One hand reached up through the foam and held a white rose. It was indeed a beautiful sight.

"Everyday on this Hoeking Valley Railroad two express trains pass. One goes East at 8:30. The other goes West at 2 p. m., but they never stop here. On this particular day, however, the 2 o'clock train stopped and a fine looking young man and two elegantly dressed ladies got off. After a few minutes talk with the station master they came straight to the undertaker's rooms. Their unusual appearance attracted our attention, while far down the street, and Jack Pearson, who had just returned from the graveyard and was viewing our work with sad eyes, walked out to meet them.

OPEN TONIGHT!

GET THE SAVING HABIT! We're Anxious to Help You!

TEN years ago we distributed nearly one thousand Home Savings Banks. They were loaned to depositors upon opening a savings account at this bank. The proposition proved so very satisfactory to the depositors that we have decided to again inaugurate the scheme.

THESE little banks, which cannot be opened by the owner, proved a wonderful help. The Saving Habit, inculcated by the possession of one of these little banks, which are quite ornamental and secure, started many a person on the way to a nice bank account—teaching them thrift and economy. In fact Portsmouth is a community of savers—the little banks have done a splendid work.

He soon returned saying they were relatives of the young girl. "We quietly withdrew as the strangers came in. After a bit Mr. Pearson came to us in another room, saying, 'The relatives approved of everything except the hour for burial was to be 6:30 instead of 4:30 as we had planned.' "He then asked us to drive to the burial with the relatives. We had brought a bunch of white gladiolus and I hurried home. In a short time Mr. Pearson brought the strangers to our house. I assigned them my best room, including the parlor on the second floor. They requested tea, which I served in the parlor. Mr. Rowe had two backs and an open carriage. Messrs. Smith, Westwood, Ellison and Miller rode in the open carriage in front of the hearse. Mr. Pearson rode with the strangers in the first hack, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Westwood, Mrs. Rowe, and I rode in the second. The men who had dug the grave remained to fill it. As the clads began to rattle on the grave, one of the women gave a low moan and the young man put his arm around her. "Not a word was spoken except as Mr. Pearson now and then gave an order in a low tone. "The sun had set when the work was done. Mrs. Westwood had brought a bunch of white roses which Mr. Pearson laid on the grave. (To be continued.)

New Boston Council Talks Improvement, Acts Accordingly

The passing of three ordinances would not be assessed and the town would have to bear the burden of the expense. Member Taylor suggested paying Rhodes avenue which will be the main thoroughfare of the village when the car line comes that way. There is not a single piece of property along Rhodes that is not assessable and the village's portion would not be so much. Engineer Sam Harper was instructed to bring in an estimate on what the village's share of the paving will be.

An ordinance to appropriate money for salaries and other expense of the village was passed. It will be an advance draw on the last half of the year's budget. The advance draw amounts to $2214.

An ordinance granting Mr. Brennan the right to run a ferry was also fixed by council.

Council took a rising vote thank-ing Portsmouth for the use of the auto truck and for the splendid work done by the fireman at the fire Monday morning.

The village fire protection was the next matter given the attention of council. According to Member Taylor two companies ought to be organized in the village, one to be stationed in the east end and one in the west end. A fire company that will hold a drill or practice several times a month would be a great help to the village. Each man who gives himself to the fire company will receive compensation for their time. A new hose for the chemical tank arrived Monday and was placed on the tank Monday afternoon.

Member Taylor was anxious to know what had become of the license ordinance and why it was not being enforced. The clerk was authorized to get the necessary blanks printed.

A number of supplies for the mayor's office were asked for by Mayor J. S. Davis and Clerk O'Neal was instructed to place an order for same. The next meeting of council will be on the coming Monday and will be the first regular meeting in July.

FIRE MAY MEAN GALLIA PAVING

Further argument in favor of the improvement of the Gallia Pike thoroughfare located in the village of New Boston was offered by the conflagration which visited the neighboring village Monday morning, according to Mayor Frick, who has written a letter to Mayor Samuel Davis, urging him to use his influence to have the work started.

The local mayor expressed his sympathy for the village for the loss it sustained, and also regret that the local fire fighting equipment could not get to the scene sooner. The delay was attributed to the wretched condition of the Gallia Pike. Assurance was given Mayor Davis that Portsmouth's fire fighting equipment was at his service whenever it was needed.

Fisher Man Is Said To Have Been Spy

Manchester, Ohio, June 30.—Much bitterness has developed as an aftermath to the postoffice election held last Saturday when Captain Harry Brown, defeated Robert Fisher, son-in-law of Postmaster Ellison, by 34 majority. Among the charges and reports was one to the effect that one of the most trusted of Fisher's lieutenants was in reality a Brown adherent and had acted as a spy in the Fisher camp, tipping off all of his moves to the enemy.

In the election Brown carried Springfield township by 25 and Manchester by 21 majority. Fisher carried Monroe township by 12 votes.

HEALTH OFFICERS ISSUE ORDERS TO KILL ALL RATS FOR FEAR OF PLAGUE

Columbus, O., June 30—Health officers of Ohio river cities and towns were urged today by the state board of health to institute a vigorous campaign for the purpose of killing all rats which land from river boats.

Drs. Bondreau and Obetz, the state epidemiologists, will begin at once investigations in these places. This precautionary measure on the part of the state authorities is due to the recent outbreak at New Orleans of what is believed to be the bubonic plague.

Medical authorities hold that the disease is spread by rats.

Dr. E. E. McCampbell, secretary of the state board of health, has sent the following telegram to the various points along the Ohio river:

"Public health service notifies me by telegraph of the occurrence of two human cases suspected of bubonic plague at New Orleans. The service recommendation is to begin active rodent survey with bacteriological examination if possible, also a campaign of rat extermination. Take all precautions to prevent rats from coming ashore from river boats. Require patrol at gang planks and the use of rat guards on hoppers.

"Epidemiologists from the state department visit you within a few days. Suggest that you direct your municipal laboratory to make examinations of all rodents caught. Use newspapers for advertising rat extermination campaign. This will be statewide."

Surgeon General Goes To Seena

Washington, June 30—Dr. Rupert Blue, surgeon-general on the public health service, left Washington for New Orleans where he will personally assume charge of the campaign being waged there to stamp out the dread bubonic plague.

Dr. Blue has ordered a quarantine on all vessels at New Orleans. While there are but a few cases there at present Dr. Blue, after a conference with Secretary McAdoo decided to take drastic steps to prevent a spread of the plague. One of the first steps will be to kill every rat in the city.

Heid May Be Dismissed

Mayor Frick stated late Monday afternoon that the affidavit against Daniel Heid, charging him with assaulting three colored youths in the North End last Friday afternoon, would probably be dismissed. The mayor stated that an investigation showed that Heid was partly justified in the action that he took. None of the boys was injured, the chief injury being to their clothes.

Gun User Released By N. Boston Mayor

The preliminary trial of Edward Taylor, charged with shooting Bud Williams with intent to kill, was completed in Mayor Sam Davis' court in New Boston Monday evening and after the evidence of eight witnesses was adduced Taylor was dismissed.

The testimony showed that Taylor shot in self defense and that Williams had entered his home armed with a gun and that he threatened to kill members of the Taylor family following a small sized riot which broke up a dance given last Thursday night in the Taylor home. The witnesses testified to the good character of Taylor and his plea of self defense was so thoroughly established that Taylor was dismissed. He was represented by Attorney Nate Gilliland, Attorney Clint Seal representing the state in the absence of Harry W. Miller who is filling Horace Small's place during the latter's illness. Edgar Miller appeared for Williams.

The examining trial consumed three hours and the mayor's office was packed as many were anxious to hear the testimony of the witnesses. It will be recalled that Taylor emptied the contents of a shotgun at Williams when the latter flashed his gun and threatened to use it. Williams is still a patient in the Hempstead hospital and while his condition is considerably more favorable it will be a week or ten days before he will be able to return to his home.

Load Of Buck Shot Intended For Cats, Strikes Little Boy

Police are quietly investigating the particulars surrounding the accidental discharge of a shotgun in the rear of Third street near Sinton street Monday evening, which came within an ace of being attended with fatalities. Shortly before eight o'clock Monday evening, Zolt and Harry Newman, aged 13 and 8 years respectively, children of Mr. and Mrs. John Newman of 1028 Third street, and their companion, Mary Friend, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Friend, of Tenth and Guy streets, started down town from the Newman residence.

As they proceeded a short distance below Sinton street on Third street, a loud report was heard, and the little Newman boy was seen to raise his right hand to his forehead, at the same time screaming with pain. The little Friend child, who was walking at his side, also joined in the screams, while a fraction of a second later a crash was heard against the window of the S. A. Moore residence across the street at Third and Sinton streets.

Residents in that vicinity, startled by the report, rushed to the assistance of the children. An investigation showed that one shot had imbedded itself in the Newman boy's forehead just above the right eye, while another one had lodged in the middle finger of his right hand, from which wound the blood flowed freely. A third shot took effect in the right arm of the Friend girl just above the elbow. None of the wounds was serious, and the children who were more frightened than hurt, returned to the Newman home unharmed.

Zola Newman, Harry's sister, sister from Safety Director Holmes, who was walking behind him, of Cincinnati, carrying a copy of the paper, claimed that the greater portion of the "Rats and Rabbits" for the gun's discharge passed a Street Frick in Cincinnati. It is few inches in front of her face, quite likely that new legislation by her. Their force was well up to the mark and the rules in vogue in Cincinnati, as the window pane, and the gun will be used as a guide in the future. The children would have been killed or seriously wounded had they struck.

Officer Dan Stokes, who lives at 1028 Third street, heard the discharge, and immediately, he and the discharge, at Heer, 828 Gallia St. 30-21

N. & W. Brakeman Crushed To Death Monday Evening

Within five minutes after he reported for duty Jesse Sparks, aged 35, a car repairer, was run over by a cut of cars and so badly mangled about 5:30 Monday evening that he lived only an hour after his removal to Hempstead hospital.

Sparks started to work by putting a knuckle pin in a couple to replace one that was broken on a car standing on Truck No. 16 in the east bound yards. He failed to put out a blue flag at the end of the train for his own protection, the customary signal intended to show that some one was working under the cars. Yard engine No. 895 in charge of Engineer Collins and Conductor Edward Barney was switching a cut of cars down the track and ran into those on which Sparks was working. He was squeezed between the ears, knocked down and both arms and both legs fearfully crushed, besides sustaining internal injuries. After five ears passed over him he with superhuman strength and effort managed to throw himself in the clear. James Long, a fellow workman, was the first to reach his side and gave the alarm. The injured man was placed aboard an engine and the run to Hempstead hospital was made in ten minutes' time. Company surgeons met him there finding he was in a dying condition made no effort to amputate his limbs merely applying restoratives and dressing his injuries.

Sparks displayed remarkable grit, talking all the way out to the hospital and remaining conscious up to the very end. His last request was that he be buried beside his wife at Frost, Ky. By the untimely death of Sparks three young children are orphaned. They are Frank, aged 11 years; Vesta, aged 9, and Opal, aged 7 years. They are at present visiting at the home of their grandparents, Frank Gamble and wife at Frost, Ky.

Sparks had been employed at the terminals for the past three years. He and children roomed and boarded at the home of his cousin, Harvey J. Lyon, a car repairer of No. 2521 Gallia street. His wife died four years ago. Sparks was a native of Elliott county, Ky., and during his boyhood and early manhood followed the occupation of a farmer. When his parents Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sparks moved from the old Kentucky home to Washington state six or seven years ago he accompanied them. He had a good position as manager of a large fruit ranch but when his wife's health failed he returned with her to this section.

Besides his parents who still live in the Northwest, he leaves three brothers and four sisters: William Sparks, a saloonkeeper of Ashland, Ky.; James Sparks of West Virginia and Lee Sparks of Kentucky; and Susan, Martha, Virgie and Eliza Sparks all of Washington. Thomas R. Horton, of No. 1221 Fourteenth street, was related to him by marriage.

Sparks' body was taken in charge by undertaker Ray Lyon but later at the request of the bereaved family was transferred to undertaker Harry Luke of Portsmouth.

lerted and taken to Kentucky Monday at midnight. Burial is expected to take place at Frost, Ky., Wednesday.
